

[DISTRACTIONS]

Make Time Fly at 35,000 Feet

READ: Anthony Bidulka's Tapas on the Ramblas (Insomniac, $16.95) is not your mama's murder mystery. Gay gumshoe Russell Quant boards the Mediterranean-bound Dorothy cruise liner to protect a wealthy matriarch from a family member with murderous intentions.

LISTEN: Does masturbation cause blindness or hairy palms? Does it really take seven years to digest chewing gum? Could I lose my contact lens in my head forever? Fill your head with answers with Mark Leyner's audiobook Why Do Men Have Nipples? (Harper, $14.95).

WATCH: After 40 years the hills have sprung to life again with The Sound of Music (20th Century Fox, $26.98). The brand-new two-disc collector's edition DVD includes hours of documentary footage, a retrospective with Julie Andrews and Christopher Plummer, and unsung archival footage—all guaranteed to become a few of your favorite things.

GROOVE: Before you "travel the world and the seven seas," pick up the new Eurythmics' Ultimate Collection (Arista, $13.99) and zone out while Annie Lennox belts out 17 digitally remastered hits. Sweet dreams!

WE'RE OUT TO KNOW YOU BETTER!

We're Kimpton. 39 distinctly-themed hotels that let you express yourself.

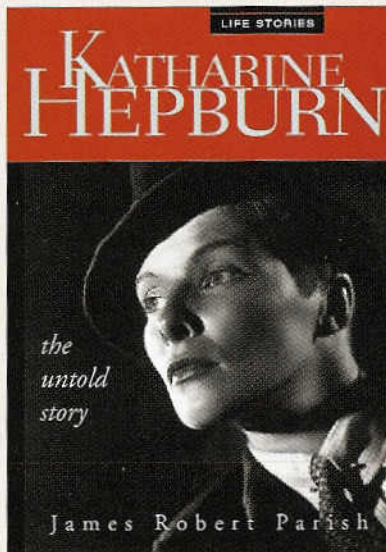

Tell us more about yourself. Join the Kimpton InTouch GLBT guest program for more personal service.

Sign up at kimptonhotels.com/glb.

Aspen. Boston. Cambridge. Chicago. Cupertino. Denver. Miami. New Orleans. New York City. Portland. Salt Lake City. San Diego. San Francisco. Seattle. Silicon Valley. Tacoma. Vancouver. Washington DC. Whistler.

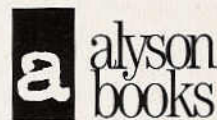

KIMPTON every hotel tells a story 800-KIMPTON | KIMPTONHOTELS.COM

Taboo topic or truth?

KATHARINE HEPBURN: THE UNTOLD STORY separates myth from fact to reveal the real, amazing woman behind the painstakingly crafted Hollywood image.

On sale now.

Available at your local bookseller or at www.alyson.com